Scope:

Malaysian Journal of Youth Studies is refereed journal committed to the advancement of youth studies. The journal publishes articles whose content and approach are of interest to a wide range of scholars. Malaysian Journal of Youth Studies is published by an autonomous Editorial Board of Malaysian Institute for Research in Youth Development. In addition, distinguished scholars from local and foreign universities have been appointed to serve on the Advisory Board of the journal.

Submission Procedure:

- The journal publishes manuscripts written in the Malay language, while submissions in English are also accepted. Manuscripts submitted to the journal for publication should be original contributions and must not have been previously published or be under consideration by any other publications.
- Two copies of the manuscript, typed with double spacing on A4 paper, should be submitted to the Editor-in-Chief, Malaysian Journal of Youth Studies, Institute for Youth Research Malaysia, Ministry of Youth & Sports Malaysia, Level 10, KBS Tower, 62570, Putrajaya Malaysia. The manuscript should be accompanied by a short biographical note about the authors.
- An author(s) whose manuscript has been accepted for publication will be required to send a hard copy as well as a soft copy and hard copy of the final, edited version of the manuscript. While a manuscript is under consideration, be sure to inform the editor of any change in address. Three (3) hardcopies of the journal will be given to the corresponding author of the published manuscript.

Format And Style:

- The title of a manuscript should be concise, descriptive and preferably not exceeding 15 words. The manuscript must include an abstract, describing its main points, in English and Malay of within 150-200 words including key word of at least five (5) words.
- All illustrations, including figures, charts and graphs, must be labeled and supplied on pages separate from the texts. The desired placement in the text should be clearly indicated. These illustrations should be referred to and numbered serially as figures. All illustrations should be clearly drawn in permanent ink or photographed in sharp black and white or color and reproduced in the form of high-contrast glossy points or digital images and provided in camera ready form.

- References in the text should be denoted by giving the names(s) of the author(s) with the year of publications in parenthesis. All alphabetically ordered references list should be included at the end of the manuscript. All references cited in the text must appear in the reference list. Authors are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of all information in the reference. Manuscripts must conform to the references guidelines in The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). The reference style adopted should be consistent throughout the manuscript.

Copyright:

- It is the author's responsibility to ensure that his or her submitted work does not infringe any existing copyright. Furthermore, the author indemnifies the editors and publisher against any breach of such a warranty. Authors should obtain permission to reproduce or adapt copyrighted material and provide evidence of approval upon submitting the final version of a manuscript.

Review Process:

- Manuscripts will be reviewed by the Editorial Board. Decisions regarding the publication of a manuscript will be based on the Board's recommendations. The manuscript will be evaluated based on its appropriateness for Malaysian Journal of Youth Studies, contribution to the discipline, cogency of analysis, conceptual breadth, clarity of presentation, and technical adequacy. To ensure that manuscripts are evaluated solely on their merit, the author's identity is concealed from referees during the review process. Manuscripts submitted by members of the journal's Editorial Board are subjected to the same review procedure.
